

Ancient Monuments in this township

1923 List

CLEATOR

Churches:

- (a) St. Leonard's; window and piscina in chancel and lower part of chancel walls 12th cent.; window in chancel 15th cent. Restorations 1792, 1841, 1900-3 (J. H. Martindale, N.s.iv, 185). Three fragments of graveslabs. Hexagonal font from St. Bees. The " Fawn Cross," mediæval boundary mark, from the Jacktrees road, near the level crossing. Grotesque heads, removed from the church 1900, in the village (Rev. C. Caine, Cleator, 242, etc.)
- (b) St. John's, Cleator Moor, 1872.

Domestic: old houses;

- (a) Bowthorn, of Steeles 1685;
- (b) Aldby, of Towersons, 17th cent.;
- (c) Todholes, two old houses;
- (d) Jacktrees 1707
- (e) Black How 1762;
- (e) Crossfield 1781;
- (f) High Wath barn 1781;
- (g) Flosh, enlarged 1837, 1866;
- (h) Row farm (ibid. 45-181).

Old road : from Papcastle and Frizington by Ratten Row, Trumpet Terrace, Cleator Hall towards Egremont; remains found on the Wath estate 1873 (ibid. 68).

Wath bridge 1816; the earlier bridge was Dent bridge.

Old dykes: on land of Sunton to Avenelstan, with ancient meerstones at Avenelstan and Stainbrenan (O.S. i, 286).

Sites :

- (a) Quaker cemetery at Crossfield.
- (b) Baptist cemetery, " Sepulchre meadow," on the road from Gutterby to Moor row (Caine, Cleator).

See Pastscape for much more detail on these and more entries (33 in total – though there may be some overlap with other townships).